PRIMARY

What's unique about Table Tennis

Table Tennis is a sport that is accessible and adaptable for all. The flexibility of formats and rules means it is attractive to both players and organisers and suits any ability, gender or age. Table Tennis can improve physical skills such as hand-eye coordination and balance as well as resilience and teamwork. The sport needs minimal equipment and can be set up almost everywhere.

What is the intent of your format

Develop confidence and competence within physical activity/sport skills

Engage new/target groups of young people (tackling inequalities)

Create positive experiences

Table Tennis is a great choice for schools as it is an inclusive sport for all. The skills developed are transferrable and in line with the School Games intents.

The outlined activities help players to nurture and build skills needed for a good foundation in Table Tennis whilst having fun with their peers. There are teamwork opportunities as well as tasks which require self-challenge and own goals.

Table Tennis is inclusive in its design; players of different ages and abilities can play and enjoy the sport together. The sport can challenge the most advanced players but be stripped back to include beginners or those needing more support.

Target group benefits

All young people

Targeted groups of young people

Table Tennis can be delivered as a 'for all offer' or easily modified to focus on specific target groups. The sport in its design is inclusive enabling players of different abilities and experience to take part in the same session.

The skill stations and game-based formats make Table Tennis more exciting but also offer an inclusive alternative to traditional competition formats.

You don't even need a Table Tennis table to deliver the skill stations or games-based formats – they can be adapted in specified space zones or delivered on desks or dining tables.

It's just not Table Tennis if you...

1

Don't use a bat

2

Don't use a ball

3

Aren't having fun!

PRIMARY

How to run inter-competition: Primary Skills Festival

How to set up

- Decide which Skills Festival to deliver. The 'Bat and Ball' skills will be well suited to complete beginners to the sport
- Collect all kit needed and set up zones for the stations
- Use posters to remind players what each station is. Depending on time available, you can have more time on stations and complete the circuit once. Or, allow a shorter time on each station and do a second circuit focusing on improving the previous score
- You can run the stations as individuals, aiming to set their own goals and targets or work as teams to get the highest score across all stations.

Age group

KS2 = 7 – 11 years old

Gender

Mixed, male or female

Participant numbers

Numbers depend on space and kit available. You can set up multiple stations to include more children.

Target audience

Suitable for all, as the stations can be modified for all abilities and experiences in the sport.

Benefits for YP

The Skills Festivals aim for players to:

- have fun and enjoy themselves
- develop friendships and meet new people
- become more determined and demonstrate resilience grace
- learn the importance of practice and preparation
- learn how to set realistic goals and work towards achieving them
- aspire to improve and challenge themselves.

Roles for YP

Use young people to:

- Set up stations
- Score stations
- Help manage timing and moving between stations
- Help decide adaptations for players who need support.

Progression

Give the players suggested progressions so that they are challenged at each station.

How to run inter-competition: Game-based activities

How to set up

- Choose which game-based activity you will be delivering
- Set up the Table Tennis table or tables with a pull-out net on. If no net, use books or something else that can act as the barrier on the tables
- Each game has different ways of scoring. You can choose to do individual scores or teams scores. Tally these up at the end of the activities to identify the overall winner
- Celebrate other successes such as resilience or great teamwork.

Age group

KS2 = 7 – 11 years old

Gender

Mixed, male or female

Participant numbers

- Minimum 5 players per activity
- If it is teams of 4, the 5th person can support with other roles such as umpire or team manager.

Target audience

Suitable for all, as the stations can be modified for all abilities and experiences in the sport.

Benefits for YP

Table Tennis games-based exercises aim for players to:

- have fun and enjoy themselves
- become more determined and demonstrate resilience
- win with pride and lose with grace
- learn the importance of practice and preparation
- learn how to set realistic goals and work towards achieving them.

Roles for YP

Use young people to:

- Set up playing area
- Support players at stations
- Award points or manage scoring.

Progression

Give the players suggested progressions so that they are challenged at each station.

How to run inter-competition: Match play competition

How to set up

- Set up the tables based on the number available, as well as considering the space needed. One match per table.
- Decide the format (singles, doubles or teams) you will be delivering and review any adaptations needed for the players.
- Games are played up to 11. Points are scored when a player serves or returns the ball, bouncing on the other side of the net and beats the opposing player. Players serve twice then rotate.

Age group

KS2 = 7 – 11 years old

Gender

Mixed, male or female

Participant numbers

- Singles: 1 vs 1. Total of 2 on a table
- Doubles: 2 vs 2. Total of 4 on a table
- Team: 3 or 4 in each team. Total of 6 or 8 around a table.

Target audience

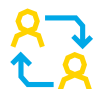

Suitable for all, as the stations can be modified for all abilities and experiences in the sport.

Benefits for YP

Table Tennis Competition Formats aim for players to:

- have fun and enjoy themselves
- become more determined and demonstrate resilience
- win with pride and lose with grace
- learn the importance of practice and preparation
- learn how to set realistic goals and work towards achieving them.

Roles for YP

Use young people to:

- Set up the tables
- Score and help the players during the game
- Team managers: supporting the players between points and games.

Why Table Tennis for your school?

Table Tennis is a great sport to engage a wide range of Young People (YP). It is inclusive in its design and can be easily adapted to cater for all abilities. There is the traditional 'Match Play' option however the Skills Festival and games-based activities build and nurture skills that not only improve the basics of Table Tennis but also are fun! These formats engage a wider group of young people. Although there are individual elements to the sport, it is easy to make everyone feel part of the team and be involved.

How to use activities in curriculum time

The TT Kidz programme is designed to give children a fun, inspiring and exciting introduction to Table Tennis. The Skills' Festival and games-based activities offer easy ways to adapt and challenge children as they improve in the sport. There is also information on how to change the traditional game formats to better fit with lessons, space or children's capacity.

TT Kidz Skill Festival: Bat and Ball skills

PRIMARY

SCAN HERE FOR INCLUSION TIPS

How to play

- TT Kidz Skills Festival: Bat and Ball skills is a great way for players to practise their Table Tennis skills and technique. There are five stations, focusing on mastering basic 'Bat and Ball' skills. Young people can take part as individuals, to achieve their personal best, or work as a team to try to get the highest score. Deliverers can show progressions when setting up, enabling multiple abilities to be in the same session and station. Divide your group and space into five areas, as per the diagram. Decide how long to spend on each station, ensuring you leave enough time to move groups between stations and allow everyone to have a go at everything. To extend the challenge, add a finisher for each station to do races based on the stations e.g. fastest team to walk to one end of the room and back whilst bouncing the ball on their bat. If the ball falls off, they re-start where the ball fell off.

Safety

- Ensure children are aware of each other
- Set up zones for each station so the activity is contained, and children stay in one place.

Equipment required

- Table Tennis bats
- Table Tennis balls

Space required

- Sports hall with enough space to set up activities on and off the table.

Estimated set-up time

- 5 minutes.

Difficulty level

How to make it easier

- Give players their own playing space
- Encourage young people to achieve in their own time and at their own pace
- Use a larger ball or bat

How to make it harder

- Introduce conditions – for example, add time limits, restrict the space they can do the activity within, increase speed of movement

Spirit of the Games

- How do you encourage your teammates to keep trying when things are tough?
- Why is it important to keep practicing, even if you're already good at something?

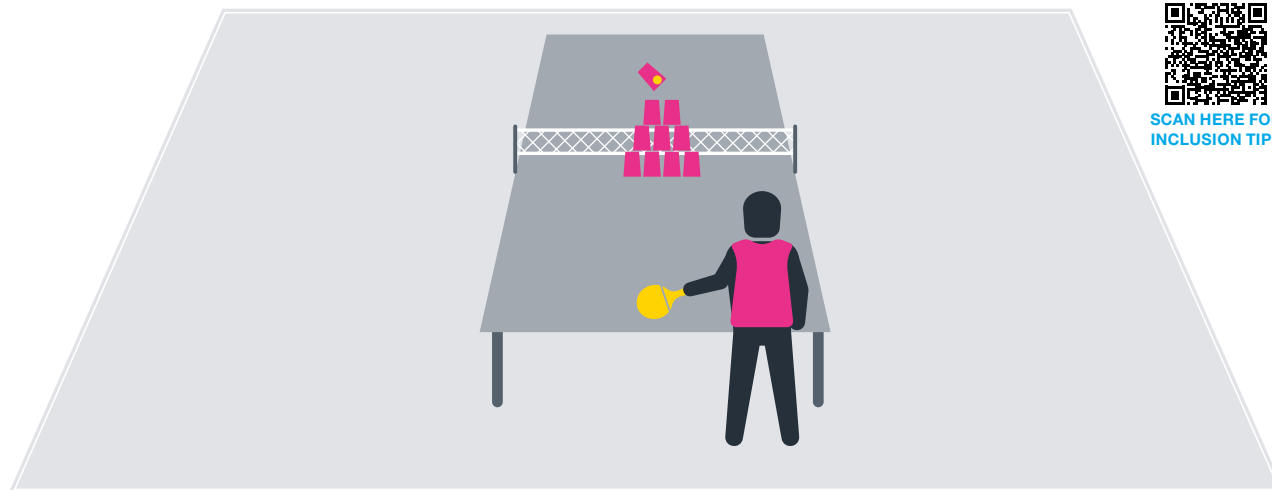

- What do you do to stay positive when things aren't going well in a game or practice?
- How do you feel when you achieve a goal that you worked hard for and believed you could reach?

TT Kidz Skill Festival: Station 1 – Cup Games

PRIMARY

SCAN HERE FOR INCLUSION TIPS

How to play

- Build the cups into a pyramid
- Take it in turns to try and knock them down by hitting a table tennis ball into it (it may take multiple times to get them all down)
- Count the number of shots it takes to knock down all the cups.

Safety

- If using a Table Tennis table, be careful around the corners and ensure there is nothing on the floor near the table
- Ensure children are aware of each other and the space to stay within
- Set up zones for each station so the activity is contained, and children stay in one place.

Equipment required

-  TT Kids cups or plastic cups
-  Table Tennis balls
-  Table Tennis bats
-  Table Tennis table, or area on the floor to play.

Space required

- Sports hall with enough space to set up activities on and off the table.

Estimated set-up time

- 2 minutes.

Difficulty level

How to make it easier

- Start with rolling the ball, then throwing, then pushing with the bat and then hitting a shot to do it
- Move closer to the pyramid
- Make the target area bigger

How to make it harder

- Make the target area more challenging
- Move further away from the pyramid
- Put conditions on how the ball is hit
- Work as a team to knock each others cups down

Safety

- If using a Table Tennis table, be careful around the corners and ensure there is nothing on the floor near the table
- Ensure children are aware of each other and the space to stay within
- Set up zones for each station so the activity is contained, and children stay in one place.

Equipment required

-  Table Tennis Table, or two desks pushed together
-  Table Tennis balls, sponge balls
-  Green card (any colour would work!)

Space required

- Sports hall with enough space to set up activities on and off the table.

Estimated set-up time

- 2 minutes.

Difficulty level

How to make it easier

- Move closer to the lily pad (green paper)
- Make the lily pad bigger
- Use bigger sized balls

How to make it harder

- Make the lily pad smaller

INCLUSION TIPS

How to play

- Divide the players into groups of 2-5 children
- Put all the balls in a hoop in the middle of the room, and a nest for each team an equal distance away. Make sure there is space away from the wall for teams to stand
- Each group stands behind their nest (hoop)
- The aim of the game is for players to get as many eggs back to their nest as possible
- When the word "GO" is called, one child at a time from each team runs and gets an egg. They then balance the egg on their bat and return to the nest
- Teams keep going till all the eggs are gone
- Each team then counts the eggs in their nests. The team with the most eggs wins.

Safety

- Ensure children are aware of each other and not to step on the hoops.

Equipment required

- Balls (eggs) lots of different shapes, sizes and materials
- Beanbags (the eggs)
- Hoops/skipping ropes (nest)
- Table Tennis bats (you can share these amongst teams)

Space required

- Indoor space. Mark out clear areas for each activity (If small space, put players into teams).

Estimated set-up time

- 5 minutes.

Difficulty level

How to make it easier

- Use non-moving objects such as bean bags or cones, instead of balls
- Make the playing space smaller
- Allow players to hold the ball on their bat

How to make it harder

- Change the movements from walking to hopping, skipping, and side-stepping
- Ask players to do ball bounces when returning to their nest
- The teacher/leader can call "Steal" and players can steal from other nests

How to play

- Best of three games to 11 points
- Players must win by two clear points
- Alternate serves every two points, unless both players have scored 10 points, in which case service changes every point
- Toss a coin to decide who serves first, or to start play at either end of the table. The player serving first in a game receives first in the next game
- In service, the ball bounces on the server's side first
- How to play a point: Each player strikes the ball after it has bounced once on their side of the table, to clear the net and land on the opponent's side. A point is won/lost when a player misses the ball, the ball bounces twice, the ball does not land on the table or does not clear the net
- Doubles: Every serve must be made from and to the right-hand side of the table. Players must then strike the ball alternately in strict rotation. The player first to receive service becomes the next server. After serving for two points, a player must move from the right-hand side of the table to allow his partner to receive service.

Safety

How to make it harder

- Apply conditions such as timed periods instead of 11 points
- Use a 'golden ball' rule that a player can choose to use before a point. If they score off that point, they get double points

Spirit of the Games

- If you are not playing, how can you support the players who are?
- How can you celebrate your teammates' successes?

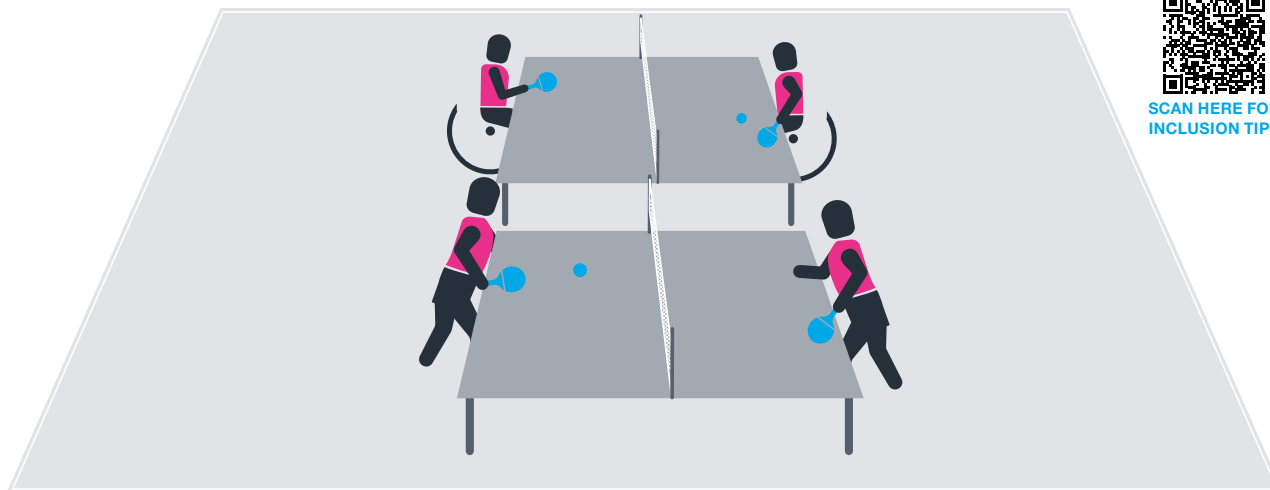

- What do you do if you don't know a rule of the game?
- How do you show respect to umpires/leaders running the session?
